

The second Towerrunning World Championships will take place on May 5, 2018 at Taipei 101, Taipei.

Race mode:

The Towerrunning World Championships tournament will consist of two heats at Taipei 101:

Saturday, May 5, Heat 1

Sprint Distance Race – 35 floors, 824 stairs, 152 vertical meters

Starting time: 7:00 AM

Individual time trial, Elite runners, male and female

Saturday, May 5, Heat 2

Full Distance Race – 91 floors, 2046 stairs, 391 vertical meters

Starting time: 8:30 AM

Individual time trial, Elite runners, male and female

Results:

The final standing will be decided by points system. Both heats will have the same points evaluation. If some runners score the same amount of points better finish position in the second heat will determinate the final standing.

Prize money:

The top 6 male and female competitors according to the final standings of the event will receive cash prizes from the organizer according to the following scheme:

1st Place - 3000 EUR (each for men and women)

2nd Place - 2000 EUR (each for men and women)

3rd Place - 1500 EUR (each for men and women)

4th Place - 750 EUR (each for men and women)

5th Place - 500 EUR (each for men and women)

6th Place - 250 EUR (each for men and women)

The World Championships are a regular Towerrunning Tour event with the highest possible factor of 280. All registered TWA athletes willing to take part but not fulfilling the qualification criteria will get a spot in the Elite category and free race entry. More information will be published soon.

