

PRESS RELEASE

CARRERA TOWERRUNNING TORRE LATINO

42 FLOORS, 720 STAIRS

March 6th, 2016

On March 6 took place the race Towerrunning Torre Latino 2016 in Mexico City, within the framework of WFGT Challenge and the Circuit of Towerrunning Mexico, exactly 7.30 am 600 runners and 50 kids up the Torre Latinoamericana finishing at altitude of 2,400 m above sea level.

Despite the presence of runners elite from Colombia, Germany, USA and Mexican Towerrunning Team, the strong colombian runner Frank Carreno, holder of Columbia's Towerrunning race Ascenso Torre Colpatría, won with 3 min 42 sec and 9 seconds after the Mexican Gustavo Mendoza finished de 42 floors, following Oscar Caltenco with 4:04 and fourth position the german Heimann George with 4:05.

The women's elite race was dominated by the colombian runner Maria Eugenia Rodriguez with a time a new woman record of 4 min 53 sec., followed by Cindy Harris from USA with a time of 5:17 and Esteffany Paredes with 5:29.